

JULY - JUILLET 2009

Le Mois de la France Chez Olivier

1. Le Mois de la France

Bastille Day - 12 - 18 July

During the week-long Bastille Day celebrations, we are offering a special three course (plus appertif) Bastille Day lunch @ $49.50 per person - or a three course (plus surprise) dinner @ $75.00 per person. We are filling up fast, so don't delay your bookings.

Tour de France - 4 - 26 July

Running from July 4 to July 26, the 96 Tour de France will be made up of 21 stages and will cover a total distance of 3,500 kilometres. For more details, visit www.tour.fr, and watch your TV sets for some of the most spectacular scenery of my home country!

2. The Truffle Season

It is cold and wet outside, which could only mean one thing - our famous truffle season is here! We just brought in over 1.5 kilogrammes of the black diamond coming from Western Australia: believe me these truffles are outstanding...

Over the months of July and August watch out for our menu specials with black truffles, which are brought to your table by our exclusive suppliers Wines and Truffles.

3. Seasonal Dishes

Our chefs are working hard to prepare a variety of seasonal dishes, using ingredients which are in season and at their best, exclusively brought to us by our fresh food suppliers, including:

- Black truffles
- Quinces, Raspberries, and Pink Lady Apples
- Jerusalem Artichokes
- Chestnuts and Mushrooms
- King Fish & Oysters
- Spatchcock
- Asparagus
- Citrus
- Celeriac

Consult our menu and ask our gorgeous staff for daily specials!

4. VOTE FOR US - "I LOVE FOOD" AWARDS 2009!

We are taking part into the "I LOVE FOOD" Awards 2009. Visit www.lifestylefood.com.au for further details and vote for us as your favourite restaurant today!
